

KEEP OUR NEIGHBORHOOD A SPECIAL PLACE TO LIVE

From Greenwich Village to SoHo to Washington Market to Little Italy to Chinatown, our district is made up of some of the most diverse and historic communities in New York City.

I believe that one of the best ways to preserve our historic communities is to make sure that local government officials sit down and work with community leaders to develop plans for the future of our neighborhoods. As President of Asian Americans For Equality, I helped to organize Chinatown residents to file a historic lawsuit against the Koch Administration to force City Hall to work with our community to develop a zoning plan that meets our need for affordable housing.

As your State Committee woman, I will continue to work with other elected officials to preserve our neighborhoods by fighting for commercial rent protection and protection for tenants in lofts, subsidized housing and Mitchell Lamas. By safeguarding the rights of all residents, small businesses and artists to stay and develop our neighborhoods as we see fit, we can keep the 61st Assembly District a special place to live, work and raise our families.

OUR CHILDREN ARE OUR MOST PRECIOUS RESOURCE

As both a parent and teacher, I have become familiar with some of the many problems we face in working to improve our schools. Our children are our most precious resource and I am committed to making sure they get the best education possible.

I will work together with all concerned community residents to come up with responsible and effective solutions to the terrible spread of drugs in our communities. Let's keep our streets and schools safe and drug free.

With your help, we can work to continue and to expand the Democratic Party's commitment to quality education in our schools.

HUMAN RIGHTS IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

As your representative on the State Committee, I look forward to working with all of you in the fight for human rights and against all forms of discrimination. Even though we have recently won some important victories such as the Gay Rights bill in the City Council, we must always be ready to defend these gains from being taken away.

Human rights is everyone's business. We must stand together to defend the rights of minorities, women and gays. An attack on any group in our community is an attack on all of us.

MAKING SURE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS AN ADVOCATE FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

As State Committee Woman, I will be "your eyes and ears" and work to make sure that the Democratic Party stays in touch with our communities. Whether it's getting a new park or play ground or helping to keep our streets clean, I'll work to make sure your concerns are taken up.

No concern or problem is too small. With your help, I will be your advocate in the Democratic Party.

Dear Fellow Democrats:

I am writing to ask for your support of my candidacy for State Committee Woman of the 61st Assembly District. Many of us as registered Democrats have felt at times as if our interests and needs have not been fully represented. As your representative on the State Committee, I'll work with you to make sure that the candidates chosen by our Party and the positions that it takes reflect our concerns. I believe that members of the State Committee should be accessible to all the Democrats in our district, be advocates of the needs of our various and diverse communities, endorse candidates who are genuinely concerned about people, and in that spirit, help to rebuild the Democratic Party.

I grew up in Chinatown and have been very active in Lower Manhattan for the last 15 years. I am a member of the Village Independent Democrats and the Chair of the Downtown Independent Democrats and Treasurer of Community Board Three. Presently, I am also the President of Asian Americans For Equality, an organization dedicated to the rights and needs of tenants, senior citizens and minorities. Recently, I worked with our group to get a major grant to renovate two city-owned buildings to create housing for low income and homeless families.

During the last twelve years, I have worked and marched with other communities for peace and equality, quality education, women's rights, gay and lesbian rights, commercial rent protection, job training programs, tenant rights and for the protection of our environment.

As your State Committee Woman, I will bring with me the voices of the people in our district and years of community organizing. Please give your support in the Democratic Primary on September 9th. Let's work together to make the Democratic Party accountable to our communities and be the Party that will bring about peace and a prosperous future for America.

Sincerely,

Margaret Chin
